Privacy

The Tax Office is authorised by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to request you to quote your tax file number (TFN). It is not an offence not to quote your TFN. However, your assessment may be delayed if you do not quote your TFN.

The Tax Office is also authorised by the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 and the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999 to ask for the other information on this tax return. We need this information to help us to administer the taxation laws.

We may give this information to other government agencies as authorised in taxation law – for example, benefit payment agencies such as Centrelink, the Department of Education, Science and Training, and the Department of Families, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs; law enforcement agencies such as state and federal police; and other agencies such as the Child Support Agency, the Australian Bureau of Statistics and the Reserve Bank of Australia. The Commissioner of Taxation, as Registrar of the Australian Business Register, may use the ABN and business details which you provide on this tax return to maintain the integrity of the register.

I declare that:

- all the information I have given on this tax return, including any attachments, is true and correct
- I have shown all my income – including net capital gains – for tax purposes for 2006–07
- I have completed and attached the supplementary section, schedules and other attachments – as appropriate – that TaxPack 2007 told me to provide
- I have completed item M2 – Medicare levy surcharge
- I have the necessary receipts and/or other records – or expect to obtain the necessary written evidence within a reasonable time of lodging this tax return – to support my claims for deductions and tax offsets
- I have obtained my spouse's written consent to quote their TFN and to transfer the child care tax rebate to them.

IMPORTANT

The tax law imposes heavy penalties for giving false or misleading information.
