Important Notes about the Interposed entity election 2000

Note 1: Why must the Interposed entity election 2000 be used?

- The Interposed entity election 2000 must be used by the trustee(s), company or partners for:
 - a. making an interposed entity election in accordance with section 272-85 of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936 specifying a day in the 1999–2000 income year; or
 - b. providing information about an interposed entity election specifying a day in the 1996–1997, 1997–1998 or 1998–1999 income year in accordance with subitem 23A(3) of Schedule 1 to Trust Loss Act.*
 - * Note: Under item 23A of Schedule 1 to Trust Loss Act a trustee(s), company or partners can make an interposed entity election for an earlier income year only in relation to a family trust if the trustee of the family trust has made a family trust election for the earlier income year.
 See Note 1 on Family trust election and/or family trust revocation 2000 for details on when the trustee can make an earlier year family trust election.

Note 2: Conditions for making an interposed entity election

- To make an interposed entity election specifying a day in the 1999–2000 income year, the trust, company or partnership must pass the family control test in section 272-87 of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936 at the end of the income year (see subsection 272-85(4) of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936). However, the interposed entity election will only be in force from the later of the specified day or the earliest time (the election commencement time) in the 1999–2000 income year from which the trust, company or partnership passes the family control test continuously until the end of that income year (see subsection 272-85(6) of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936).
- · An interposed entity election is irrevocable.
- The trustee(s), company or partners may make more than one interposed entity election in accordance with section 272-85 of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936 and if applicable, item 23A of Schedule 1 to Trust Loss Act, provided all the elections are made in respect of family trusts which have specified the same individual in their family trust elections (see subsection 272-85(7) of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936). A separate form must be completed and provided for each interposed entity election.

Note 3: How to complete the Interposed entity election 2000

- The Interposed entity election 2000 must be completed if the trustee(s), company or partners:
 - a. is/are making an interposed entity election specifying a day in the 1999–2000 income year; or
 - b. has/have already made an interposed entity election specifying a day in the 1996–1997, 1997–1998 or 1998–1999 income year in accordance with subitem 23A(2) of Schedule 1 to Trust Loss Act.
- · All the particulars and information required in the

- Interposed entity election 2000 must be provided to satisfy the conditions in section 272-85 of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936 or if applicable, subitem 23A(3) of Schedule 1 to Trust Loss Act.
- Although it is not an offence not to quote a TFN, any TFN required in this form is information which the Commissioner or the return requires under the meaning of subsection 272-85(3) of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936 and subitem 23A(3) of Schedule 1 to Trust Loss Act. If a TFN of a person or entity is required in the Interposed entity election 2000 and the relevant person or entity does not have a TFN, print X in the box provided.
- The Interposed entity election 2000 must be signed by the trustee(s), the company public officer or the partners. It must be signed by the person(s) who are the trustee(s), public officer or the partners at the time the 1999–2000 tax return for the trust, company or partnership, respectively, is lodged or the Interposed entity election 2000 is given to the Commissioner. If any trustee or partner is a company, the company public officer must sign for that trustee or partner, respectively.

Note 4: When to make and lodge the Interposed entity election 2000

 If a 1999–2000 income tax return is required to be lodged by the trustee(s), company or partners, the Interposed entity election 2000 must be included as part of that tax return for the trust, company or partnership, respectively. The completed tax return including the Interposed entity election 2000 is sent to:

> ATO Datacorp Non-individuals GPO Box 9990 Box Hill VIC 3128

If a 1999–2000 income tax return is not required to be lodged by the trustee(s), company or partners, the Interposed entity election 2000 must be given to the Commissioner no later than 2 months after the end of the 1999–2000 income year for the trust, company or partnership, respectively. The completed Interposed entity election 2000 is sent to:

ATO Datacorp Non-individuals GPO Box 9990 Box Hill VIC 3128

• If the trustee(s), company or partners need(s) further time within which to give the Commissioner the Interposed entity election 2000, the trustee(s), company or partners, respectively, should write to the Commissioner before the due date requesting an extension of time under subparagraph 272-85(2)(b)(ii) of Schedule 2F to ITAA 1936 or paragraph (b) of subitem 23A(3) of Schedule 1 to Trust Loss Act (as the case may be), stating the reason(s) for the delay and the proposed date for giving the Commissioner the Interposed entity election 2000.

Hours taken to prepare and complete this form

The ATO is committed to reducing the costs involved in complying with the taxpayer's taxation obligations. The response to this item will help the ATO to monitor these costs as closely as possible.

When completing this item the trust, company or partnership should consider the time, rounded up to the nearest hour spent:

- reading the instructions;
- ii. collecting the necessary information to complete this form;
- iii. making any necessary calculations; and/or
- iv. actually completing this form.

Notes:

- 1. The answer relates only to the time spent preparing and completing this form, including the time of any unpaid helpers. You do not include the time spent by a tax agent, or any other person whose assistance was paid for and who is not an employee of the trust, company or partnership.
- 2. If this form is required to be lodged with the tax return, the answer is included in the time box provided in the tax return.
