Section J: DECLARATION

49 Your declaration

I declare that:

The tax law imposes heavy penalties for giving false or misleading information. See the privacy information on page 50 in the instructions.

- the information I have provided is true and correct and that I have no other taxable income
- I have the necessary receipts and records or expect to obtain them within a reasonable time
- of lodging this tax return to support my claims for deductions and tax offsets.

Your signature

The ATO will issue your assessment based on your tax return. However, the ATO has some time to review your tax return, and issue an amended assessment if a review shows inaccuracies that change the assessment. The standard review period is two years but for some taxpayers it is four years. (See page 6 of the instructions.)
