Privacy

The ATO is authorised by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to request your tax file number (TFN). We will use your TFN to identify you in our records. It is not an offence not to provide your TFN. However if you do not provide your TFN, there may be a delay in processing this application.

Taxation law authorises the ATO to collect information and to disclose it to other government agencies. For information about your privacy go to ato.gov.au/privacy

Read and sign the declaration after completing your application. Even though someone else may have helped you to complete your application, you are responsible for the information provided and you must sign the declaration.

I declare that:

- all the information I have given on this application is true and correct
- I do not need to lodge a tax return and have no tax payable for the 2019–20 income year
- I have shown the total of my dividend income and franking credits received during the 2019–20 income year AND
- I have the necessary records to support my application for a refund of franking credits.

Important

The ATO may confirm with the payer who sent you your dividend or distribution statement that the information you have provided on this application is correct. The tax law imposes heavy penalties for giving false or misleading information.

If lodging by phone, record your receipt number here.
